Guest Speakers: Anne Cheng '85, Charles Du '13, and Tara Ohrtman '13

Saturday, June 2, 2012 at the Chancellor Green Rotunda

9:00 am to 11:00 am

Please join us to catch up with old friends and meet new ones. This reception will also be a wonderful opportunity for graduate and undergraduate alumni to learn more about A4P and contribute ideas for future activities. We look forward to greeting newcomers and longstanding members.

At 9:30 a.m., Anne Cheng '85, Professor of English and African American Studies at Princeton, and students Charles Du '13 and Tara Ohrtman '13 will present an update on the status of Asian American Studies at the University. After their brief update, we invite the audience to ask questions and offer suggestions for A4P activities and programs. Several A4P volunteers representing different class ranges will be present to join the conversation and answer questions. Afterwards we will resume socializing and networking.

A light breakfast buffet will be available.

2\) A4P - AASA Mentorship Program.

We're looking for volunteer mentors! A4P invites you to become an alumni mentor to members of Princeton's Asian American Students Association (AASA).

The A4P-AASA mentoring program gives alumni a chance to share their expertise and experience with current students looking for academic, career, or life advice. We hope that by establishing this link between our alumni and student organization, we will also strengthen Princeton's Asian American community.

To volunteer to become a mentor, please fill out the brief form to help us learn more about your mentorship preferences. Please complete the form by July 31. It will only take a minute!

The mentorship program will kick off in September 2012 when the new 2012-2013 academic year begins. A4P will contact volunteer mentors in September with information about their mentees and additional details about the the program. Please contact Kevin Wong '05 at a4pmentoring@gmail.com with any questions.

3) A4P From the Archives

Do you ever ponder the black and white photos in the PAW that appear at the beginning of the Class Notes asking for information about the people in the photo and what they were doing? We have such a photo for A4P. We recognize only the person on the far left as Dave Wu '79. The picture was from around 1983 or so, and there was a female undergrad assisting with interviewing the oldest alum from Beijing at the time around 90+ years old, from Class of 1916 or sometime around then, when he and his daughter came to campus for a visit. Does anyone know the female undergrad (perhaps last name Hu?), the name of the Old Guard alum, and any other information about the circumstances of the picture? Email Regina Lee '85 at emailboxrl-regina85@yahoo.com.
